

WYOMING CONFERENCE OF BUILDING OFFICIALS

Become a WCBO Sponsor or Supporter

Increase your visibility by becoming a sponsor of our organization. Sponsorship of WCBO events provides you with the opportunity to have your company's name and services visible to Wyoming code officials, other State and Local officials, as well as ICC, architects, engineers, and other associated supporting organizations. Sponsorship contributions are used entirely to assist with and offset the cost of meetings, training sessions, and new WCBO programs. Sponsorship Benefits include:

- Added visibility and name recognition with WCBO members and other awareness for new products and services for your organization
- Recognized as a supporter of building safety through association with WCBO and ICC
- Names and logos are published on the WCBO website and linked to your website
- Recognition at WCBO meetings, in WCBO publications and promotional materials
- Associate membership
- Availability to host a table at the WCBO spring and fall meetings and training courses
